TABLE OF CONTENTS

14. Journals & Series ..........................................................................................................................................................1
14. Journals & Series

- CLC Web Comparative Literature and Culture: online since 1999, publishes peer reviewed articles on all aspects of its topic. http://clcwebjournal.lib.purdue.edu/.

- Computers and Texts: journal/newsletter of the CTI Centre for Textual Studies. http://info.ox.ac.uk/ctitext/publish/comtxt/.

- Computing in the Humanities Working Papers: an interdisciplinary series of refereed publications on computer-assisted research http://www.chass.utoronto.ca/epc/chwp/.

- D-Lib forum and magazine: widely-read electronic periodical and online resource center for digital library research. http://www.dlib.org/dlib/.

- Human IT: a quarterly peer reviewed journal published by The Centre for Information Technology Studies as a Human Science (ITH) at the Swedish School for Library and Information Studies (SSLIS), University College of Borås and Göteborg University; many articles of interest to the humanities computing community, both in Swedish and, to an increasing degree, in English. Also published in print. [http://www hb.se/bhs/ith/humanit-eng.htm](http://www hb.se/bhs/ith/humanit-eng.htm).

- Jahrbuch für Computerphilologie: the online component of a printed journal offering a form for discussion of the numerous possibilities computing offers to literary studies. http://www.computerphilologie.uni-muenchen.de/efournal.html.

- Literary and Linguistic Computing: the official peer reviewed journal of the Association for Literary and Linguistic Computing and the Association for Computers and the Humanities. http://www3.oup.co.uk/jnlis/list/litlin/.

- Office for Humanities Communication: based at King’s College London, has currently 16 titles in print. http://www.ohc.kcl.ac.uk/.
