5. Summary

This tutorial module has focused on the encoding of specific phenomena of primary source texts in TEI. When all of the concepts discussed are applied to the example text, this is how its transcription could look:

Well done! 8.5 / 10

I can't believe it. Carl has not written to me or sent me a postcard once since he's been away in Egypt. It would be easier if our phone was working. It's been broken for ages! Dad can't fix it at the moment, and we can't afford to buy a new one. I would write to him, but he didn't tell me the address of the villa he was staying in. If only I had a mobile, I could phone his mobile number. Eureka!!! I could use next door's phone, oh, actually, Mr and Mrs Crooel won't let me use it (they're my next door neighbours). I know! I'll use the phone box!!! (I think I've got some change).

Goodness me, this phone box stinks. EEAW, I don't even want to know what that is. Anyway, I hope his phone is switched on. What's it again?? Oh, yeah 1312632. Arrgh!!

Who's shaking the phone box!! Who turned the lights!!!!

WOW!!! Where am I? Why is everything so smoky?
Everything is silver except the air around me, it's black, and I'm standing in a silver pod, with something that looks like a phone. When you look up there are millions of metal poles, and some of them have a hat look like funny shaped cars whizzing along attached to the metal poles at the top.

There seems to be no one around the phone box. Yuk! Someone has just walked past. All their skin is black and crusty and in the side of their neck are gitt-like things. The whites of his or her eyes are grey and he, or she has no hair. I also notice that he, or she has a clear gas mask. It's from all the smoke.

Goodness me! I just stepped outside the phone box and I couldn't breathe. "breath" = noun "to breathe" = verb It was like a cobra was wrapped around my neck and if I was to get a little bit of air in it was horrible, like when you stop at red man beside the traffic lights and a bus is stopped beside you and you're getting breaths of carbon dioxide. But this was 100x worse. Now I know what all the black air is: all the pollution.
pollution. But that doesn’t help me figure out where I am.

What's that? It's a big poster on the wall, saying: Monday 26th May 1312632. I've gone into the future!!! Wait, I recognise the date. It's Carl's number! When I typed it in on the key pad in the phone box, that must have taken me into the future: I must get back and warn everyone!

I'll type in 2008. Nothing was happening. Then, Hello, dearie, an old woman answered, Who is it? I hung up. Uh, oh. How do I get back then?

I've been thinking for ages about what to do. There only seems to be one good option, fix and stop all the pollution. This sort of seems like a dream, but a fun dream. I'll just have to find out where the city's power source is.

It was a lot easier to find than I thought it would be. I got round the corner and was a BIG sign saying CITY'S.
POWER SOURCE. It's very oily and extremely big. Ah, this will be the switch.

Everything has gone dark and I can't see where I'm going. I keep on banging into long bars and wires and knobs. Yess!! The door!!!

I got out.

There is uproar outside. I sealed the door with stones on the ground so no one could get in to turn the switch back on.

I've been thinking. If I'm going to suck out all the pollution I'm going to need help. Which is not going to be easy.

Everyone keeps on staring at me. It's very annoying. I hope people will help!

OK. I think this will work. I've put up posters everywhere. They say... MEETING BESIDE PHONE BOX BE THERE AT 2pm. I hope they read English time.
